FROM MORNING TO EVENING.

THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN will hereafter be issued in the evening instead of the morning. This change has been contemplated for several days and we have decided to make it at once. The first issue will appear to-morrow evening. It was the original intention of the publisher to make THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN an evening paper, but from the fact that the morning field had no competition it was decided to try a morning paper as an experiment. The task was a difficult one, but the paper was a success from the start and soon had a large bona fide circulation, and the first month's business showed a balance on the right side of the ledger. This month's business bids fair to double that of last month, and we feel that the patronage it is receiving is a fair indication that the people want THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN, and as long as there is a demand for the paper it will meet the demand. From present prospects THE DAILY KENTUCKIAN will be published indefinitely, or at least "enduring of the war," and with the idea of permanency naturally returns the preference for a day paper. We have found it impossible to get telegraphic news direct at night and have been forced to have our reports repeated by telephone from all-night offices. We have also found it very difficult to mail the paper and have had to do a great deal of troublesome work at unseasonable hours to get the papers off at all on some routes. These obstacles all disappear when the paper ceases to come out in the morning. Moreover, it is much more satisfactory to run one force, than to keep the office open 22 hours a day and operate two distinct forces of compositors.

We understand that the change makes competition a little closer, but the KENTUCKIAN will rely for success upon the superiority of its news service, both telegraphic and local. It will receive telegraphic reports of fresh, legitimate and reliable news from all over the world. It will continue to cover the entire local news field in such a way that it can afford to stand upon its merits.

The change will be made on Monday, in order to let subscribers gain rather than lose a paper, and after to-day there will be no paper issued on Sunday.

Peace rumors are again circulating all over Europe. Who has heard of any serious breach of the peace up to the present time?

Postmaster-General Smith announces that there is to be no interference with the United States mails by the news censors in Florida. Their operations must be confined to the wires.

George Dewey, Jr., who is a clerk at $65 a month, has declined the offer of a leading newspaper of $5000 a year to sign his name to articles written for him by a reporter.

A few little Spanish gunboats dodging about in waters patrolled by upwards of fifty American warships, were sufficient to scare our entire army of invasion back to Key West and Tampa, in the opinion of that wonderful War Board at Washington. Bah!

It is now proposed to stop the army of Gen. Shafter, 26,000 men, poised in mid-ocean between a steaming sea and a burning sky, until a fleet of sixteen battleships can be organized to fight off the little gunboats that were too small to bottle up. No wonder Spain denies that she is going to sue for peace.

Another brilliant piece of management has come to light. The monitor Monterey and convoy Brutus started to cross the Pacific ocean with so little coal that they had to put into San Diego to get a new supply when they were supposed to be half way to Honolulu. It is to be hoped they took on enough this time to carry them out of sight of land.

THE ENEMY'S SHIPS.

Big Scare on the Atlantic Coast Saturday Morning.

Intense Excitement That Spanish Vessels Had Been Sighted.

Newport News, Va., June 11.—A dispatch received from Fort Monroe early this morning says:

"Intense excitement was caused at Fort Monroe, last night shortly after 9 o'clock by a dispatch received from the signal station at Cape Henry stating that Spanish warships were lurking in that vicinity. A short while later a message was received from Washington instructing the commandant of the fort to be on the alert.

"Reports as to the number of ships conflict. A Lieutenant who was seen after midnight said he had been informed that a Spanish battleship, two cruisers and a torpedo boat had been caught under the searchlight of Cape Henry, steaming from a northerly direction.

"As soon as it was reported that the enemy's warships had been sighted there was great activity at the fort. The big searchlight began to sweep the bay and signals were flashed to the cruiser Minneapolis, auxiliary cruiser Dixie and dynamite cruiser Buffalo, which are anchored off Old Point. Quarters were sounded and the crews hastily prepared the ships for action. The gunners took position at their posts, where they were ordered to remain during the night. The ships' searchlights were kept playing on the waters.

"In the fort ammunition was hurried to the big guns and the troops ordered to their posts. Some of the officers were with their families at the hotels, and buglers were dispatched for them. The men hurried out of their hotels half dressed and hastened to the fort. In the camp of the Maryland troops orders were given for the men to sleep in clothes with their guns close by."

"A dispatch came from Washington stating that one of the vessels seen was probably a German freighter, had a tendency to allay the excitement among the guest at the hotels, but the officers did not relax their vigilance."

The telegraphic news service of the KENTUCKIAN hereafter will be the very best to be had. It will not be made up of fakes and sensations but will be fresh, reliable reports from all the news centers of the world. There will be no occasion for its readers to take any out-of-town afternoon paper to keep fully posted about what is going on. The regular edition will be issued at 4:30 o'clock and subsequent editions as the news may demand.

Gen. Merritt made a speech at a banquet given in his honor in San Francisco, in which he took this strong ground in favor of holding the Philippines: "I believe in the new national policy of the United States, which looks to the acquisition of additional territory, represented in outlying islands that are requisite for the development of national strength and growth."

Kentucky will have four annual Methodist conferences this year, as follows: Bishop Hargrove will hold the West Virginia conference at Catlettsburg, September 7; Bishop Granbury will hold Kentucky conference at Flemingsburg, September 14; Louisville conference at Louisville, September 21; Bishop Hendrix will hold Memphis conference at Paducah, November 9.
